

DCOP Fall 2001 Seminar (MS 590/591)
Fridays, 12-1 p.m., Classroom A/B

Date	Speaker	Affiliation	Title
Sept 7	Jim Wesson	Virginia Marine Resources Commission	Oyster Management and Restoration in Virginia Chesapeake Bay
Sept 14	Willy Reay Note: Seminar at 11 a.m., McHugh Auditorium	Chesapeake Bay Estuarine Research Reserve / DCOP	Groundwater Discharge in Coastal Systems: Implications for Chesapeake Bay
Sept 21	John Graves	Fisheries Science, VIMS	A two part seminar on: (1) The VIMS Department of Fisheries Science: Research and Management Programs; and (2) International Management of Highly Migratory Species: Is ICCAT the International Commission for the Conservation of Atlantic Tunas or an International Conspiracy to Catch All the Tunas?
Sept 28	Daniel Pauly Note: Seminar at 3.30 p.m., McHugh Auditorium	Fisheries Centre, University of British Columbia	The State of the North Atlantic Fisheries and Their Supporting Ecosystems: A map-based approach
Oct 5	Steve Kuehl	Physical Sciences, VIMS	Overview of Physical Sciences Research Emphasizing Policy Related Studies
Oct 12	Mike Orbach Note: Seminar at 3.30 p.m., McHugh Auditorium	Marine Affairs and Policy and Marine Laboratory, Nicholas School of the Environment, Duke University	Incorporating Human Dimensions in Coastal and Ocean Management Policy
Oct 19	Lisa Dipinto	NOAA/NOS Environmental Toxicology	Science and Policy in the Federal Damage Assessment Process
Oct 26	Rebecca Smyth	NOAA/NOS, Policy Analysis and Communications Division	Legislative Process and Environmental Policy
Nov 2	Mike Focazio	US Geological Survey	Contaminants and Drinking-Water Sources: Recent Findings of the U.S. Geological Survey
Nov 9	Don Rahtz	School of Business, The College of William and Mary	Green, Greed, and Sustainable Development: Issues in the Tourism Markets of Southeast Asian Transitional Economies
Nov 16	Robert Meltz	American Law Division Congressional Research Service Washintgton, D.C.	Government Regulation of Privately Owned Wetlands: The "Takings" Issue
Nov 23	No seminar		Thanksgiving
Nov 30	Mory Roberts	Environmental Science, VIMS	The Quest for Environmental Health: Interactions between science and government agencies
Dec 7	Dick Wetzel	Biological Sciences, VIMS	Programs and Resources in Biological Sciences at the VIMS/SMS